

23rd Annual Conference on Odor Environment

Points to be noted in application

Application requirements

No specific conditions are required so far odor is concerned.

Presentation type

A1 : Short oral presentation(15 minute limit)

A2 : Long oral presentation(20 minute limit)

B : Poster presentation *

* free discussion at the Poster hall after 2 minutes oral presentation at the hall

Category

Basic and/or practical research and case study of the following category.

a : Physiology and psychology of olfaction. Characterization of odor materials

b : Regulation and/or policy, and their results. Preservation activities for odor environment. Resident sense.

c : Source characterization of odor. Grasp of common environmental condition.

d : Measurement, analysis, assessment of odor elements

e: Deodorization technology.

f: Characterization and properties of deodorization apparatus.

g: Practical use of scent (aromatherapy etc.).

h: Atmospheric behavior of odor. Environmental assessment.

i: Indoor odor environment

j: Sensory assessment (food flavor, cosmetic body odor etc.)

k: Others: Subjects related with odor

Application

Please download an application form from our website <http://www.orea.or.jp/> . Send an E-mail(info@orea.or.jp) to a secretariat after filling in the following items(1-8) listed below. We send the detailed writing point after application receipt. Please remember to prepare a manuscript which should be followed by the writing points.

The length of the paper should be A4-size sheets including charts and graphs.

